

I am against any weakening of the current privacy laws.
I do not wish ANYONE to have the right to make sales calls to my home or cell phone. If anything, I think that the laws should be altered to not allow any sales call or charity solicitation. My home is my sanctuary. I should be allowed to have privacy if I wish. If I need any services or to give to a charity, I will seek them out.